Introducing the Pavillion Trellis. Its intricate design combines a delicate print with gentle flowing lines, creating an inviting visual that complements any setting. Available in four richly patterned, earthy shades—Woodrose, Indigo, Fennel, and Turmeric—Pavillion Trellis was curated to harmonize seamlessly with our Scottsdale collection’s natural motifs. Each color is versatile enough to mix and match with other Luxe Linen fabrics, bringing an organic, sophisticated touch to events with its understated, classic allure.

To showcase this stunning linen, we partnered with La Beau Events in Jacksonville FL. La Beau Events use of patterns infuses her events with a lively feeling balanced only by their elegance. Pairing the color and swirling print on our Woodroose Pavillion Trellis with this coffee inspired seating chart was visual genius. The earthy pink goes perfectly with the varying shades of coffee and our vine and flower print almost looks like clouds in a coffee cup! Brava!

WILDFLOWER DREAMS:

MEET OUR WILD DAHLIAS PRINT

Our Wild Dahlia prints are the perfect example of how well designed fabric can really be the foundation of event design. Each colorway of our Wild Dahlia linen tells its own story and comes in three different tonal arrangements; in navy, gray, and maroon for a dramatic, refined look; yellow, taupe, and cream for warm elegance; and sage green paired with cream, capturing a fresh, natural aesthetic. These prints are thoughtfully crafted to elevate any event, creating a seamless blend of color and pattern that feels both timeless and bold.

Designed to work in harmony with our Tuscany Linen, Hampton, or Amalfi linens, napkins and table runners, the Wild Dahlia print bring an effortless flair to event decor. The combination of these textiles allows for endless creativity, letting clients curate unique looks that radiate sophistication and charm. Whether for weddings, galas, or intimate gatherings, these colorways are crafted as a complete design solution, transforming spaces with a single linen choice.

Inspired by the untamed beauty of wildflowers, the Wild Dahlia prints reflect the spirit of our Scottsdale collection, with patterns that capture the vibrant allure of nature. These linens are the perfect blend of sophistication and playfulness, ideal for clients seeking an event design rooted in both elegance and a free-spirited style.

VIBRANT, APPROACHABLE ELEGANCE

Paired with gold bamboo chairs and delicate crystal glassware, this linen exudes sophistication while adding a natural, botanical feel, setting the stage for an unforgettable dining experience.

TRAIL WILD DAHLIAS TABLE LINEN PAIRED WITH OUR SMOKEY BLUE AND GARNET TUSCANY NAPKINS.

CREATIVE TEAM BEHIND THIS TABLE: PLANNING AND DESIGN: HILARY HAMER WEDDINGS AND EVENTS, FLOWERS: IXORA FLORAL, PHOTOGRAPHY: MAYA MYERS, RENTALS: PREMIERE PARTY RENTALS, VENUE: JONATHAN CLUB DOWNTOWN LA

Hilary Hamer brought our Trail Wild Dahlia linen to life in a way that perfectly captured its spirited elegance. Her table design invites you into a western garden. A combination of earthy and vibrant tones, enhanced by the rich dahlia motif that adds a touch of the wild. The finished product embodies Nuevo Vallarta design, it is coastal, very high end with natural finishes and build on a modern Mexican aesthetic. Every detail, from the layered plates and fresh succulents to the red and blue napkin accents, work to create a cohesive, inviting look that feels like an oasis.

Balance in design: Modern, clean lines with plates, silverware and glassware perfectly “tames” our Wild Dahlia print in Turmeric.

WORKING WITH BOLD PRINTS

Using multicolored linen in tabletop design offers a playful yet sophisticated way to energize any event setting. The key to using multicolored designs successfully is balance; while the print can make a bold statement, pairing it with neutral elements, such as minimalist place settings or simple floral arrangements, helps ensure the look doesn't become overwhelming. Instead, the print becomes a centerpiece that sets the tone, adding a layer of interest without overpowering the entire table.

Multicolored prints also bring a sense of versatility and adaptability to event decor. A multicolored print like Wild Dahlias, creates an expertly crafted pallet for your event. When Carol from The Blushing Details was styling this table, she drew on every color in this linen to create an eclectic yet cohesive table. Event planners can even use these prints to create a subtle connection to different sections of an event, like coordinating a cocktail space with the reception or dinner spaces.

Finally, multicolored prints create a cohesive narrative for the event, enhancing the storytelling aspect of the design. These prints work wonderfully in layered, eclectic settings, where mixing textures and colors reflects the event's theme or the client's personality. Our Scottsdale collection allows hosts to create a unique look that feels curated yet approachable. With Luxe Linen's range of designs, the options are limitless, inviting creativity and ensuring every detail feels thoughtfully crafted.

Twilight Gathering Sky table linen embodies the art of storytelling through design, so we partnered with Charlie from Blue Bell event to help us showcase this fabric.

SET DRESSING PERFECTION; TWILIGHT GATHERING SKY PAIRED WITH GLOW FRENCH VELVET NAPKINS

With a theatrical background, Charlie sees every event as a narrative, where each detail contributes to the unfolding story. Our Twilight Gathering Sky linen embodies that storytelling spirit. It's a fabric that invites guests to imagine themselves in a wild, untamed landscape. Under Charlie's direction that untamed spirit came to life. You could sit at this table and forget that you were on a roof top in the heart of Los Angeles. Instead you were on the set of Yellowstone about to have dinner with Beth and John Dutton.

With its rich tapestry of emerald greens, deep blues, and earthy browns, this linen brings the magic of the forest to your table. These linens bring a dramatic, artful presence to event settings, allowing for depth and texture that elevates any tablescape. With intricate designs and rich, layered tones, our tapestries make a bold statement while remaining versatile and easily incorporated into various event styles.

Our collection combines the timeless beauty of traditional tapestry with a modern color palette, blending seamlessly into both rustic and elegant setups. These tapestry linens bring warmth and sophistication to any setting, offering a unique way to embrace texture and color. From subtle earth tones to bolder hues, each linen in this collection is designed to stand out and captivate, drawing guests into an immersive visual experience.
